THE HOMER FITTS COMPANY

OUR Mid-Summer Shoe Sale

Commences Thursday, July 15, and Closes Monday, July 26, 1909.

For 10 days we shall offer our stock of summer goods at prices that ought to move them on the run, as we wish to clean up to prepare for Fall goods that are to come in, and as we are to take inventory August 1, we can count money easier than shoes. We have not had very much warm weather yet this sale comes at a time when you can use them this season as it is predicted that we shall have warm weather up to October 1st. Now we will quote you a few prices to show you we mean what we say when we offer you good goods at low prices for these ten days.

Elly Bourdon of Claremont, N. H., denies that he is a has-been. Read his statement: "Having heard that Jack Grace was living in Barre and inviting all comers I wish to say that I have tried to meet him ever since we wrestled in Barre last year but he doesn't appear to want to wrestle me again. I understand he said I was too old and that I am a has-been and a lot more of that kind of rot. Now I have a few things to say about Mr. Grace and one thing is that I think he is afraid to meet me. I will wrestle him anywhere, any style and for any amount of money. And another thing is this: I am willing to let the people judge as to whether I am a has-been or not. Elly Bourdon, Claremont, N. H."
